Letter to the Family

As a child, I do not recall celebrating All Saints' Day (November 1) or All Saints' Sunday (the first Sunday in November each year). In my spiritual immaturity, I thought that it was odd to have a "day to be sad." I used to make comments to my mom who would have notes on the home calendar in regards to who died on a particular day decades ago. Now, however, I love the tradition of slowing down to remember. The word "remember" means to put back together. I want to put back together those sacred memories of loved ones.

Our church tends to remember All Saints' Day more in the realm of All Souls Day since we are remembering more than simply saints or martyrs in some traditions. Regardless, it is a very intimate and inward-looking time for communities to name their grief and process it, and to commemorate the lives of friends and loved ones in a ritual way.

All Saints' Sunday is a way to reaffirm the things we think are important about our life together and to speak to the living about the witness of the dead. All Saints' Sunday turns into an occasion for reflection on the past but also for dreaming about all the possible futures, sorting among them to decide which ones feel most true.

On this All Saints' Sunday, we will also be having our "Greater Things" luncheon. I hope that you will join your fellow disciples after worship to hear about our plans for the upcoming year! There will be wonderful food (thanks to Matt Hunt) and desserts (thanks to our CWF group)! This Sunday will be a day to hold multiple emotions - sadness, remembering, excitement, and much more. I hope that you will be in worship and at our luncheon to be part of the experience!

Together,

Pastor Jeth
Senior Pastor

In order to ensure that we have enough BBQ, Peach Cobbler, and more for everyone, an RSVP would be very much appreciated so that we may plan accordingly. Contact our office at 818-763-8218 or by email at glenda@fccnh.org. Thank you!

All Saints' Sunday

Overcoming Seemingly Insurmountable Odds

All Saints' Sunday is a special time each year to stop and give thanks to all of the individuals who have shaped our lives. On Sunday, we will lift up those who have died this past year and those who we still remember often. Our scripture is 1 Kings 18:[17-29] 20-30a [30b-39], which is the story of Elijah standing strong against overwhelming odds to share the faith. We hope to see you on Sunday as Pastor Jonathan shares his message entitled "Overcoming Seemingly Insurmountable Odds" and we remember those who shared the faith with us and the world.

THE ADVENT THEATRE

The Advent Theatre began in 1981 when several members of the original New York cast of the landmark 1971 play Godspell, found themselves in Los Angeles attending FCCNH. In true thespian fashion, the idea came to do a 10-year reunion show at the church. Many members of our church combined their talents, skills, technical, artistic, design, and business experiences together to form The Advent Theatre.

The Godspell show was scheduled for 6 weeks, but was such a success in the church and community it ran for six months! Our Pastor Bob Bock reportedly only missed six performances.

From that success, the Advent Theatre grew into one of the most successful small theatres in the area with the direction and support of the founding members, Gilmer & Stephen Reinhardt, Jeanne Lange & David Haskell and with the encouragement of notables like Gordon Davidson, founding artistic director of the Mark Taper theatre. Over the years there have been many productions including musicals, classics, comedies, family shows, single character, and original plays. In 1988 nearly 100 people took part in a new adaptation of Charles Dickens's A Christmas Carol starring Bill Hayes. Among the many shows presented were Blithe Spirit, The Fantasticks, Cinderella, The Good Doctor and Ten Little Indians.

All of the shows were produced and presented by volunteers in our church family. Many of those folks are still active in our congregation like Glenda Morgan Brown, Molly Wilson, Dino Schofield, Bill & Susan Hayes, Ken & Barbara Campbell, Karl Klein, Jacqui Dixon, Robin Stallings, Deborah Dietrich, Beth Owen, Denise Ovaldson, and Terri Hall...to name a few.

All of the proceeds were distributed between outside charities and various needs of our church.

The Advent Theatre Mission Statement is to provide high-quality theatre that inspires others to seek out and strengthen their own journey with God.
