Our text for this Sunday - Mark 12:28-44 - ends with the story of the “widow’s mite” who gives a significant portion of her salary to the benefit of others. Just prior to that portion of the text, we hear about how our treatment of widows is one of the rubrics through which we can gauge how we are doing as a society.

For some, the health of our culture and society is based upon our gross domestic product. For others, it is based on a variety of economic factors. The Bible invites us to see things differently. For much of the biblical text, the way in which we gauge how we are doing is based upon how the widows, orphans, and refugees or “strangers/aliens” are doing. However, at this moment, as Jesus sat near the Temple in Jerusalem, He uplifted the widow who was in front of Him.

How do you choose to grade the success of our community, nation, and world? Oftentimes, those factors can seem distant and therefore can make us wonder how much of an impact we can make. I propose that we join the Bible in grading how successful we are by looking at the widows, orphans, and refugees around us. We may feel as if we cannot help all of the widows, orphans, and refugees. What if we started with the widow right in front of us, as Jesus lifted up in our text? What if we began with the orphan in our neighborhood? What if we started with the refugees who are looking for a better life down the street?

If we take the Bible seriously, we may end up helping Jesus in these moments. I write these words to not simply be provocative, but to take Jesus at His word in Matthew 25:37-40. I also share these words because Jesus was, in fact, a refugee Himself (Matthew 2:13-23).

As many children bring home their progress reports this time of year, I wonder what ours would say.

Together,

Pastor Jeth

Senior Pastor

“Disagreeing Without Losing Our Humanity”

TEXT: MARK 12: 28 – 34

Rev. Dr. Jonathan B. Hall, Senior Pastor

Many of us know what it is like to disagree with someone on social media. It is easy to hide behind a keyboard and tell someone how they are wrong (to put it nicely). We do not have to see how it hurts them. It is something different to try to understand the other person. In our text for this Sunday - Mark 12:28-34 - Jesus and a legal expert (whose group Jesus had often been in verbal sparring matches with) can show a better way forward. Perhaps, we can see a better way forward instead of sparring with other people. Pastor Jonathan's message is entitled "Disagreeing Without Losing Our Humanity."

REGISTRATION OPENS THIS FRIDAY • MARCH 8

June 10 - June 14

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL (VBS)

At Hero Hotline, kids are invited to learn from the heroes of the Bible! Our team of heroes will spring into action and explore the ultimate Hero Handbook - the Bible - to discover how all Heroes can follow the examples set by a cast of supporting Bible Heroes in stories from the Old and New Testaments, who work together to bring peace, build each other up, and share the great story of God's love for us.

As kids (called Heroes) experience these stories through music, drama and storytelling, games, arts and crafts, science, and even snacks, they'll learn that Heroes are called to Follow Jesus, Help Others, Work Together, Listen to God, and Show Grace! And, best of all, they'll be invited to answer this call at VBS, at church, at home, and in every area of their lives.

VBS is open to children who are ages 3+ and potty trained to 6th grade, and runs Monday, June 10th - Friday, June 14th from 9a-12pm. Aftercare from 12-3pm is available.

FCCNH celebrates some important anniversaries in March. Longtime members may recall Sunday, March 2, 1969, when Rev. Robert M. Bock stood in the pulpit and preached the sermon that began our 52 years together as a church family.

Reaching farther back in our history, we also celebrate March 5, 1950. That Sunday, the children in our Church School walked with teachers and many parents in a procession stretching from our old church near Moorpark and Tujungga to our new one on the corner of Moorpark and Colfax. Children were excited to leave Army surplus buildings and classes set up on folding chairs in the parking lot and visit their brand-new classrooms in the big red brick church we now call home.

Pastor Bob used to say how right it was that the children in the church were the first to occupy it, since they were the church's future. Today, we demonstrate that importance with the many parents whose children grew up in the church and who now attend with their own children – or even their children's children.

Practicality was the reason behind the March 5 procession. The new sanctuary was not quite finished, but tax laws required that the church building be occupied on the first Sunday in March, or it would be on the tax rolls for another year. The Church School/Social Hall wing was, if not fully furnished, completed enough for occupancy. As often happens in our church family, people stepped forward to finish getting things ready. Several men banded together to move furniture. Others built and painted new tables for classrooms. Women's Council members made window curtains. Some of the women who scraped paint off and cleaned the windows appear in a newspaper photo presently displayed in our church library just off the front of the sanctuary. We encourage you to visit the exhibit whenever you are at the church.

The average Church School attendance during February 1950 was 261 pupils. That number grew to 385 in March. Teachers and aides had been preparing for the move with curriculum classes and faculty meetings. The children were excited to be in their new church home. When they arrived, all were given a tour of their classrooms and the rest of the church campus. In a luxury of space, most classes met separately according to public school grades. Downstairs classrooms (including a nursery) were for younger children; the older ones met upstairs.

March 5, 1950 was also a day of great anticipation, as parents and children alike looked forward to Sunday, March 12 and dedication services for the FCCNH Sanctuary. Celebrating the reality of years-long dreams, sacrifice and effort by so many people is the subject of next week's 100th anniversary newsletter article.

GOOD FRIDAY labyrinth walk

MARCH 29 • 12pm - 7pm

The labyrinth is a walking meditation, a path of prayer and an archetypal blueprint where psyche meets Spirit. It has only one path that leads from the outer edge in a circuitous way to the center. There are no tricks to it and no dead ends. Unlike a maze where you lose your way, the labyrinth is a spiritual tool that can help you find your way. On Good Friday our labyrinth will be set up in the Social Hall for all who wish to take this meditative walk from 12pm to 7pm.

GOOD FRIDAY service of tenebrae

MARCH 29 • 7:00 pm

A Service of Tenebrae, or "Shadows," is based on a twelfth-century late night/early morning service and is an extended meditation on the passion of Christ.

We Need You! Sponsor Ingredients

Easter Breakfast has traditionally been a nice fundraiser for our youth! This money has helped them do many trips and activities. If you sponsor $30 in ingredients you get 2 complementary breakfasts! $15 gets you 1! Plus we will throw in the warm glow of helping our youth for free! As always, there are many ways to reach us with your prayer needs.

On Sundays, there are cards in the morning bulletins. You can write your prayers on the back and put them in the offering plates as they are passed. You may also slide your prayer cards through the slot in the Prayer Cabinet near the drinking fountain outside the Chapel doors.

During the week, your prayers can reach us in several ways:

- Via email on the church website:

www.fccnh.org/worship/prayer-requests

- Via phone call to the church office: 818-763-8218

If you are at the church, prayer cards are available at the Prayer Cabinet outside the Chapel. Fill one out and put it in the cabinet slot, or drop it off in the church office.

Prayers received during the week in one of these ways will be emailed out to Prayer Group members. Unless urgent, prayers received on Saturday or Sunday will be compiled for the list given to members on Monday mornings.

The sole purpose of the Prayer Group has always been to pray for those in need. Prayers are lifted aloud in the Chapel on Monday mornings, and then become part of the daily prayer discipline of our members. As always, all prayers that come to us are kept strictly confidential and are not shared elsewhere. 🌸
