I love the feeling of writing to you for the first time in this continued tradition of a "Letter to the Family!" It is truly an honor!

Some of you have noticed that I tend to begin a greeting with "Good morning/Hello, God's beloved!" I have heard these words throughout my life and, for me, they are worth keeping. Many of us need to be reminded that not only are we made in the image of God, but that we are God's beloved.

As we continue to learn one another's stories, I hope that you will always be reminded whether we are talking on the phone, emailing, speaking in person, etc., that you are God's beloved (period). I have needed this reminder from time to time, so please know that no matter where you are on the journey of faith - never a doubt, full of doubts, suspicious, wanting to dig deeper, etc. - you are God's beloved!

I would like to continue the language of "church family" because I believe that it mattered when Pastor Bob first began to insist that we use that language. I believe that it is even more the case that we need to be reminded of what God has already done - we are connected as God's beloved family.

Together,
Pastor Jonathan

LOTS OF WAYS YOU CAN HELP THE FOOD PANTRY

As the North Hollywood Interfaith Food Pantry continues to grow we are in need of more help and there are several ways you can fill that gap:

Volunteers are needed during the week to pack the sacks of groceries that we distribute.

Our food supplies are warehoused in the basement of the educational building at Temple Beth Hillel. If you have an hour available to give us, it is pretty easy to pack between 20-30 sacks in that time. You can sign up for packing on the Pantry website – www.nhifp.org/volunteer.

Also, we need food... always. Please consider helping us fundraise, and food raise! If you are a member of one of our supporting congregations or are connected to an outside organization, please consider hosting a food drive. All non-perishable food items are welcome. Whatever we are unable to have on hand to put in our grocery bags, we need to purchase. Your financial donations are always welcome.

As always, thank you for your continued support of the North Hollywood Interfaith Food Pantry.
